CHICAGO BOUND

This year the band took a trip to Chicago, the first trip the band department has made in a long time. Approximately $5,000 was needed for this event, and the fund-raising began with popcorn sales in November. A little over $1,000 was made on this project. The next money-maker was the benefit basketball game between the EMT's and the teachers, and also a freethrow contest where the students and community pledged money per shot. Approximately $900 was made. For half-time entertainment, the jazz and community bands performed. Our third fund-raiser was the Band-o-Rama, slave auction, and VIP (Vocal and Instrumental parents) bake sale. The jazz and concert bands performed, along with the community band, a group of local people that got together for these events, and the elementary band. After the performances, a slave auction of all the high school band members and their director was held, with Bill Brown as the auctioneer. Nearly $1500 was made for the cause. The VIP mothers also held a bake sale, and approximately $200 was netted. The rest of the money was made on donations; the American Legion - $1,000, the Community Club - $500, and the Pirate Booster club added $200.

Finally, the big day came: Friday, May 8th! At 8:45 p.m., the chartered bus left the north doors of the school with 31 band members, 4 chaperones, and Mr. and Mrs. Ortiz. The trip took approximately 9 hours, and at 6:30 a.m. Saturday we were eating at a restaurant on the west side of Chicago. After a short drive to the McCormick Inn, where we stayed during our visit, the bus was loaded and we were on our way to see the many sights of Chicago. The first stop was the Field Museum of Natural History. Some of the major items of interest were dinosaurs, mummies, many animals, rare gems, and the different cultures of man. The next stop was at the Marriott's Great America amusement park, where several hours were spent riding rides, shopping for souvenirs, and chowing down. At about 8:00 p.m., we went to the world's tallest building, the Sears Tower, and went to the top (103rd) floor. From the top, we could see the many miles of Chicago skyline. Sunday the band spent the day at the motel, practicing and relaxing. At 2:30 the concert band performed and at 3:30 the jazz band performed. To add special touches, the band paid the rent on tuxedos for our director, Mr. Ortiz, and the other boys in the jazz band. At 7:30 p.m. an awards banquet was held in the ballroom of the motel. The Graettinger concert band received a very good (blue rating) and the jazz band received a fair (red rating). Monday, after packing, saying good-bye to the new friends met, and loading the bus, we headed for the John G. Shedd Aquarium. Many types of exotic fishes were seen. The last place we visited was the Museum of Science and Industry, where a tour of the German Submarine, the U-505, was taken. The rest of the time was spent looking around at the many, many interesting sights. Exhibits on the types of energy, planes, exercise, a fairy castle, yesterday's main street, and communications were seen. Departure was at 1:00 p.m. and the bus crossed the Iowa border about 4:00 p.m. Finally, after food and other stops, we unloaded the bus in good 'ole Graettinger at about 12:30 p.m. Monday night. Tuesday morning, a tired and weary bunch of band students was seen wandering around the halls. Even from lack of sleep and just being worn out, the overall consensus of the band was a good time. Hopefully, we will take more trips and compete in more competitions. It was a wonderful learning experience that will long be remembered by all the members of the 1980-81 Graettinger High School Band. We all wish to thank everyone for their efforts in making this trip possible.

SYNOPSIS

Poor Cinderella? Not this time! It's poor stempother and sisters, desperately trying to drag Cinderella away from her beloved brooms and brushes to the Ball.

Cinderella has not one, but two fairy godmothers coming to her rescue. One, Dame Prudence, tells Cinderella the truth. She must shape up and stop making herself and everyone else miserable. The other, Dame Wiley, gives her advice to how to make everyone more miserable

The Royal Family announces a Ball, to marry off the silent Prince, even though the Queen wants him to remain a "mamma's boy." Cinderella wins her prince but her "happily ever after" backfires as she "cleans up at the palace" on her wedding day.

Row 3: Patsy Sampson, Valerie Iverson, Debbie Harris, Norma Nissen, Debbie Moran, Jessica Eldridge, Tammy Egeland, Joe Weis, Bob Scherer, Rod Reutter, Doug Hamilton, Rhonda Felkey, Tami Studer, Connie Herke, Kathy Murray. Row 4: Kelly Graettinger, Jane Eaton, Michelle Schacherer, Cris Nissen, Kevin Carlin, Darrell Nicol, Brett Helmich, Perry Hersom, Craig Borchers, Sandy Scherer, Lori Park, Michelle Ohrtman, and Brenda Alesch.

The Graettinger Vocal Department started the year off by singing for the "Sounds of Christmas" program on KEYC-TV in Mankato. They also sang for the Christmas Concert.

Early this spring the Swing Choir provided entertainment at the Pork Producers supper in Emmetsburg.

Mr. Koopman also took students to the All-State Auditions in Eagle Grove. One student, Lisa Luhman, was chosen to participate in the All-State Festival.

The concert choir was also in the Large Group Contest on May 2nd. The choir received a "B" rating.

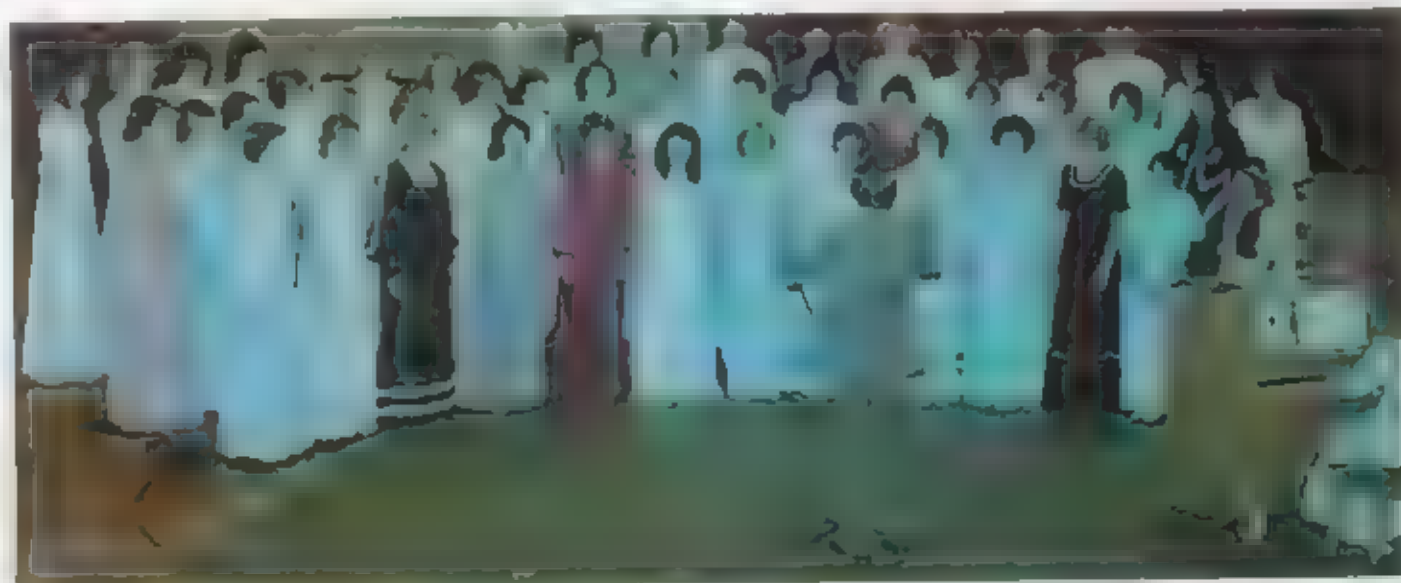

This year's choir was very large, and they represented the school well at all the events they attended.

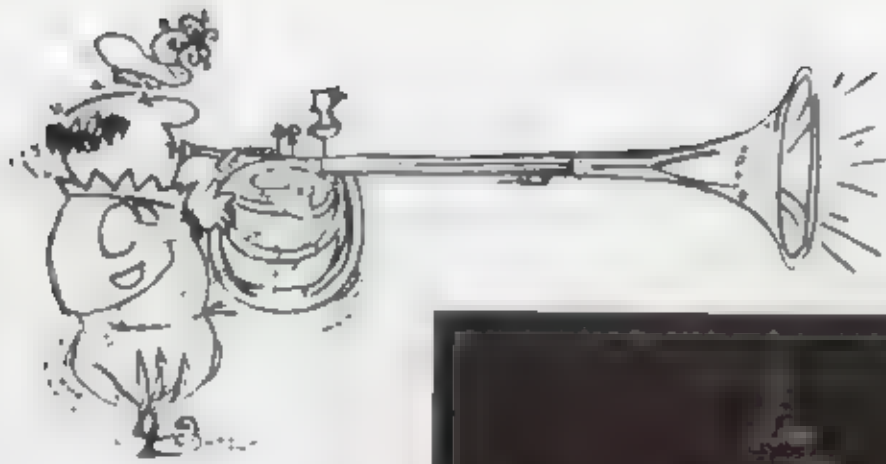

Dawn Egeland and Ruth Dalen performed at the Christmas Concert.

Row 3: Jeff Rients, Perry Hersom, Trish Klein, Deb Sidles, Brenda Lien, Ranae Reutter, Phil Wever, Sharon Chrestiansen, and Lori Park.

Julia Graettinger wants to be sold at the band slave auction.

The Jazz Band plays at the Band-O-Rama.

This year the band was kept busy with many events. They marched at the ILCC Homecoming Parade, Labor Day Parade, Homecoming Parade, and Memorial Day Parade. They also provided music for all the home football and basketball games.

In October, Mr. Ortiz took two students to All-State Auditions in Eagle Grove.

On December 7th the concert band performed at the annual Christmas Concert.

May 2nd the concert band participated in Large Group Contest held at Spencer, and came home with a fine "II" rating.

In mid-August the Jazz Band travelled to Des Moines to entertain fair-goers at the Iowa State Fair.

All-in-all, the 1980-81 school year was one of hard work (and fun) for the high school band members.

DRAMA

"TWO ONE ACT PLAYS"

IMPROMPTU

Impromptu was one of the fall one-act plays. It was the story of actors and actresses being told to act out a play that was life. Each of the four characters had their own idea for making the play a success. In the end each person acted naturally and in doing this achieved their goal. The cast included: Joe Weis as Ernest, Ruth Dalen as Winifred, Dawn Egeland as Lora, and Matt Shryock as Tony.

GIVE AND TAKE

CAST L R Lori Park as Sam Bradley, Brenda Lien as Louise Bradley, Ronda Hoffman as Sally Bradley, Kathy Petersen as Francine Appleby and Surveyor, Julie Lien as Mrs. Temple, Greg Nissen as Phil Morton, Sandy Miller as Ada Morton, Bob Scherer as Dick Morton.

"Give and Take" was the story of two neighboring families who were the best of friends until it was thought that a rosebush owned by the Bradley's was planted on the Morton's yard. A surveyor was called in to settle the dispute. It was discovered that while the rosebush did cross onto the Morton's property, the Morton's garage crossed onto the Bradley's side of the border. Friendship was soon regained when each family decided to help the other move the property.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The student council consists of three members from each class in high school. Two members are elected by their class for the council, the third member on the council is the President of that class. The senior class has five students representing it because the President and Vice-President of the student council are seniors. The advisor for the group is Mr. Towell. They work along with him to set up activities for the student body and to look into complaints. The student council started the year off by setting up Homecoming activities as it has in past years. Again this year they held a float competition for the elementary, a dance for the high school students, and they were also responsible for decorating the stage for coronation, arranging for flowers, and for finding the car for the class attendants to ride in during the parade. The council accomplished a difficult task this year by establishing open campus for seniors. Open campus allows the seniors to leave the school grounds during their study hall periods. A few other activities the student council accomplished are: purchasing a stereo system for the student lounge, sponsoring a dance on Halloween night, paying for some of the foreign exchange students costs, and also showing the movie "They Call Me Trinity" to the high school at Christmas time. During the movie pop could be purchased. Selling pop was how the council made its money. The council maintains three pop machines throughout the school which they are responsible for keeping full.

Pres. Randy Bates kneels by the newly purchased stereo.

Sandy Miller and Val Iverson performed a humorous duet called "Visiting with Vesta". It was the story of a little girl who was a trial to her mother. A division I was received which sent them on to state competition where a II rating was achieved.

Joe Weis and Kathy Platter were "Learning To Drive". This was a humorous duet which showed the perils of driving lessons. Joe and Kathy were awarded a I and went to state where they received a division II.

The following students attended individual speech contest. (L-R) Joe Weis, Kathy Platter, Brenda Lien, Matt Shryock, (who knows where he came from?), Diann Voigt. Joe, Kathy, and Brenda advanced to state competition after receiving I's. At state competition, Joe was named as "Outstanding Performer". All did an excellent job.

The one act play, Impromptu, attended large group contests, and received a I. The cast included (L-R) Dawn Egeland, Joe Weis, Ruth Dalen, and Matt Shryock (not pictured). Although a division II rating was received at state, all had fun.

(L-R) Janna Weis and Sandra Jacobson entered large group speech with a humorous duet entitled "Eloise and Nanny". This comical sketch was about a little girl who tries the patience of her nanny. Janna and Sandra received a division I for their efforts and advanced to state competition where they received a II

Once a week, with meetings beginning at 8:00 in the morning, advisor Mrs. Mary Hoefner and Editor Brenda Lien, along with the rest of the Pirate Press crew begin the long school day early by picking, and assigning which upcoming activities to cover in the weekly Graettinger Times.

Two times this year the crew has worked especially hard to publish their own Special Edition, which requires finding more information and articles than the Times edition. Special Edition articles also need to be typed by Pirate Press members before being published.

Like so many other assignments in high school, it often happens that many articles are written sometime Monday before the 5:00 deadline. Luckily Mrs. Hoefner and Brenda are understanding, and give us another chance if an article misses the deadline.

ANNUAL STAFF

This years yearbook is the product of much work and cooperation by the staff and advisor Mr. Mozer, who just took over the position this year. Mr. Mozer and one of the editors attended a four day workshop on yearbooks at Buena Vista College in Storm Lake this past summer. At the workshop they learned how pages should be layed out and were shown alot of new things that are being done with annuals. We put some of this newly acquired knowledge to work and we feel we have turned out an excellent book.

Putting together a yearbook requires alot. Photos must be taken which requires trying to get everybody together at one time, ads have to be sold which means missing school for a day and being a salesman-a learning experience itself, also pages have to be diagramed and layed out. The laying out of a page includes the choosing of the photos you want to use, arranging them on the page, and deciding what you want written on that page and where you want it. Pages usually have to be redone about twice or until they're O.K.'d by the editor. All of this includes alot of typing which has to be done. The staff spent time during free hours in school and after school, a few evenings, and even an occasional hour or two on Saturdays to finish their assigned pages by the deadline which the frantic advisor was running around warning everyone about. Despite all this, everyone who worked on the annual enjoyed it and takes pride in the book. We hope you enjoy it and the memories captured in it.

SEASON SUMMARY

The Graettinger girls' softball team under new head coach Sandy Larsen, had a very fine season, ending it with an overall record of 8 wins and 7 losses. The Pirettes were beaten in sectionals with a forfeit to Emmetsburg. The Pirettes were victorious in extra innings with Emmetsburg, but were forced to forfeit the game because of an ineligible player.

With 8 wins and 4 losses the Pirettes placed third in the Eastern Division of the Cornbelt Conference behind rivals South Clay and West Bend.

Three Pirettes landed on the All-Conference team. They were: Senior graduate Lori Schacherer as an infielder; Senior graduate Kathy Kulow as pitcher; and junior Sandy Scherer as an outfielder. With 9 returning letterwinners and many other prospects, the Pirettes are aiming for an even better season next year.

The 1980 Pirate baseball team, coached by Merlin Olberding, worked their way to a very successful season, winning 11 games over-all and losing only a total of 4. The team placed 2nd in conference play behind Terril with a 10 win and 2 loss Cornbelt Conference record.

Four of the team members were chosen to represent the Pirates on the Cornbelt All-Conference Team: Seniors Tom Torreson and Pat Brobst were selected as pitcher/shortstop and catcher respectively. Sophomore brothers Ron and Rod Hanson were also chosen as pitcher and first baseman.

The 1980-81 volleyball season was the first full slate under the formation of the new Cornbelt Conference rules.

This was Graettinger's fourth full year of volleyball, and the second year under the direction of Coach Dennis Mozer.

Twenty-seven energetic girls made this year one of determination and hard work. The team improved greatly over the season, and the junior varsity gained lots of valuable experience.

The varsity placed fifth at the Sentral of Fenton Tournament. The finishing record was 6-8, and the final conference record was 2-4.

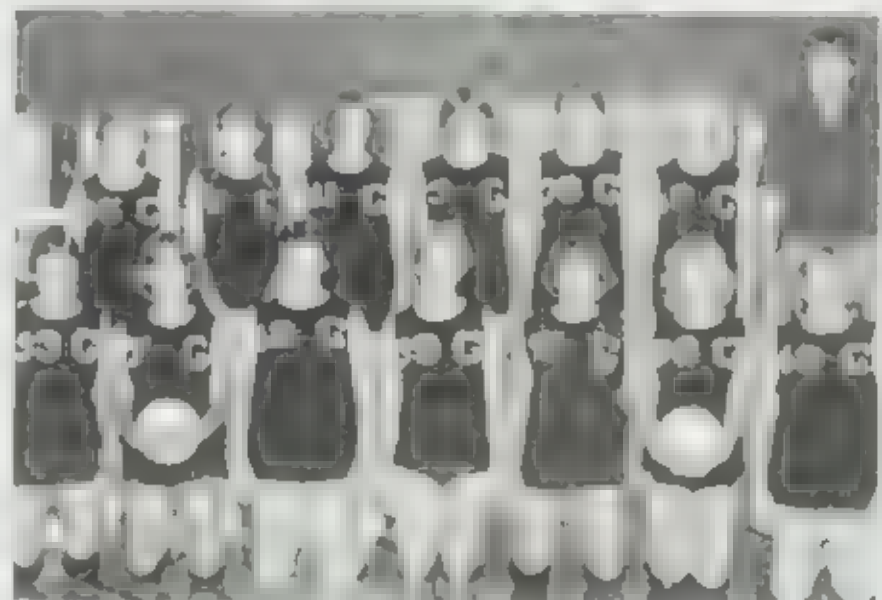

Sandy Scherer led in serves with 151-170 for 89%, and in sets with 74. Marilyn Eisenbast led the team in spikes with 106-151 for 71%. In receptions, Trish Klein returned 75-114 for 64%.

The two seniors on the squad will be greatly missed, but with many underclassmen gaining playing experience, the team should look forward to another good season.

Tammy gives it her all as she dives for the ball, while the others look on.

The big Number 1 was waiting at the end of the line for this mighty group of Pirates. They got off on the right foot with a 20-8 win over the Mallard Ducks in the second game of the season. They breezed through the season to meet their only defeat at the hands of the Iowa High School Athletic Association.

The denied birth of the state play offs came about as a result of the tie breaker consideration with Milford. So the Pirates unwillingly ended their spectacular season with a 9-0 record.

The Pirates had some outstanding players to be recognized by nine of them making the All Conference Teams and one making the All State Team.

Varsity takes a rest as the J.V. takes over another scoring drive for the Pirates.

Working the strategy, are Coach Hough and fullback, Bruce Masters.

Bruce Masters runs for another T.D. Bruce gained 1635 yards rushing to lead the scoring drive for the Pirates this year.

With the back up help of Randy Bates, Dave Petersen throws another one. Dave threw for 325 yards this season for the Pirates.

Dirk Coenen, with the 'Belgian kick' attempts to put another point on the scoreboard.

PLAYERS' OF THE WEEK

Graettinger Offensive Line. When a duo of backs combine for 346 yards of rushing and eight touchdowns, it seems like they should be runaway choices for Players of the Week. The two backs who accomplished this feat are Bruce and Tony Masters, but the honor of Players of the Week goes to Randy Bates, Kelly Schany, Terry Nelson, Perry Hersom, Craig Borchers, Dean Jensen and Ron Hanson, otherwise known as the Graettinger Offensive Line. When a team has a much running yardage as the Pirates have compiled in their undefeated season, somebody is doing the job up front and these seven linemen have done a great job!

"PIRETTES END 21-3"

Five returning letterwinners lead the Pirette basketball team to another very successful season this year. The Pirettes placed second in the eastern division of the Cornbelt Conference behind Terril and went on to defeat Everly from the western division to secure a third place finish in the overall conference.

The team ended regular season play with a near perfect 18-2 win-loss record being beaten only by Terril. In sectional tournaments, which were played on the home court, the Pirettes defeated the Ruthven Ramettes in first round, thus advancing to the second round of tournaments where they easily downed Sentral Fenton. Seemingly by tradition, the Pirettes faced the Terril Tigerettes in the Sectional Championship dual for the third time in the season. The Pirettes were not quite able to edge past the Tigerettes and ended their season with a fine 21-3 overall record.

Three local girls were placed on the Cornbelt All-Conference team. Senior forward Becky Green, Senior forward DeeAnn Miller, and Junior guard Marilyn Elsenbast all won honors.

The Pirettes lose four starters due to graduation, but are optimistic when looking forward to next year's season with much prospective talent on this year's sidelines.

PIRATE GRAPPLERS

The 1980-81 wrestling season ended with 3 wins and 4 losses. Although the team had a losing record, many of the individuals placed high in the tournament.

The wrestling squad will lose only two seniors who are Terry Nelson and Doug Hoffman, who was injured late in the season. Both had fine records ending the season and will be missed.

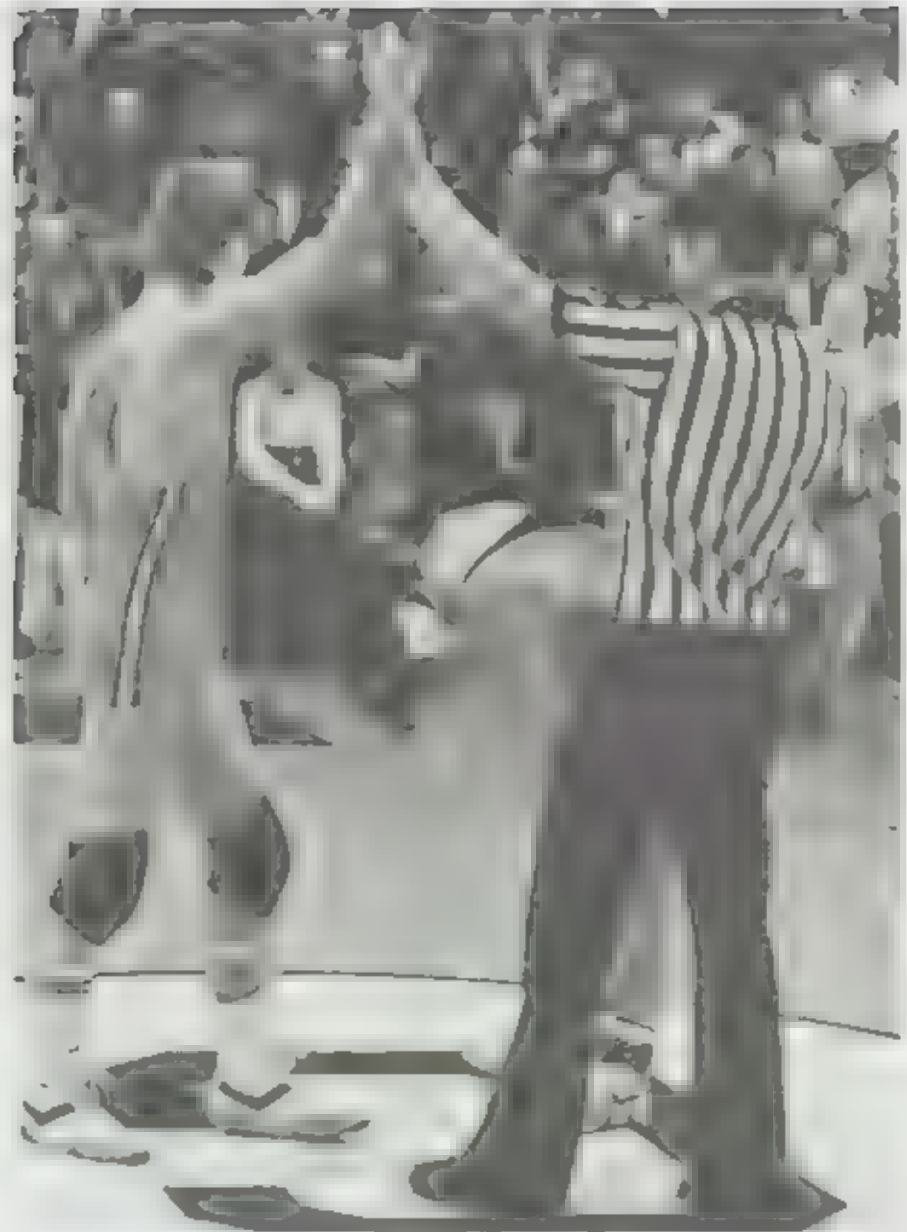

Participated at the Jeffers State Qualifiers: 32 lbs. Steve Olsen, 38 lbs. Rod Hanson, and 185 lbs. Kelly Schany. Pirate Coach Kevin Thiere is in the back row. All three qualified for the 1981 Iowa State Wrestling Tournament in Des Moines by finishing in the top three in their respective weight classes. In the opening round of the tournament, these three Pirates were eliminated and didn't get the chance to "wrestle back" for a place.

All three are only juniors, and along with a few other returnees hope to better their chances this coming year.

GOLF

The G.H.S. golfers had a busy season as they had home and away meets with the conference teams and also duels with other area teams. The boys also attended two Invitationals in which they captured 2nd place honors. As an individual the Pirate's Mike Bortvit received medalist honors at both invitationals. At the conference meet the boys took 1st place, while Mike Bortvit and Bob Forey captured medalist and runner up honors. The girls team finished 3rd in the conference and also attended a tournament at Milford.
